Mandatory Reporting

Georgia law requires the reporting of abuse, neglect and exploitation (A/N/E) of at-risk adults (elder persons and adults with disabilities) by mandatory reporters. The legal definitions of A/N/E can be found in O.C.G.A. § 16-5-100. Requirements for mandatory reporters can be found in O.C.G.A. § 30-5-4 (for individuals living in the community) and O.C.G.A. § 31-8-82 (for individuals living in a long-term care facility).

You can access the Official Code of Georgia Annotated at: <http://www.lexisnexis.com/hottopics/gacode/>

Mandatory Reporters

Mandatory reporters play a key role in protecting elder persons and adults with disabilities. The list of mandatory reporters is as follows:

- Physicians licensed to practice medicine, interns, or residents
- Hospital or Medical Personnel
- Dentists
- Licensed Psychologists and Persons Participating in Internships to Obtain Licensing
- Podiatrists
- Registered Professional Nurses or Licensed Practical Nurses or Nurse's Aides
- Professional Counselors, Social Workers, or Marriage and Family Therapists
- School Teachers
- School Administrators
- School Guidance Counselors, Visiting Teachers, School Social Workers, or School Psychologists

Responsibility of Mandatory Reporters

Mandated reporters are required to report abuse, neglect, and exploitation when they have a reasonable cause to believe.

Reasonable cause to believe means you have knowledge of facts that do not have to amount to direct knowledge but would cause a reasonable person, knowing the same facts, to reasonably conclude the same thing. A report of suspected abuse, neglect and exploitation of an at-risk adult is a request for an investigation and not an accusation. The person reporting does not have to be absolutely certain that abuse, neglect or exploitation has occurred.

Reporting Obligations

When the potential victim lives in the community:

- Mandated reporters are required to report to Adult Protective Services (APS) AND an appropriate law enforcement agency or prosecuting attorney.
- The report can be made by oral or written communication.
- The report shall include the name, address, and age of the at-risk adult, the name and address of their caretaker, the nature and extent of the injury or condition resulting from abuse, exploitation, or neglect, and other pertinent information. If you do not have all of this information, you should still report with what you have.

When the potential victim lives in a long-term care facility:

- Mandated reporters are required to report to Healthcare Facility Regulation (HFR) AND an appropriate law enforcement agency or prosecuting attorney.
- The report can be made by telephone or in person. A written report should be provided to HFR within 24 hours of making the initial report.
- The report should include the name and address of the person making the report, the name and address of the resident or former resident, the name and address of the long-term care facility, the nature and extent of any injuries or the condition resulting from the suspected abuse or exploitation, the suspected cause of the abuse or exploitation and any other information which the reporter believes might be helpful in determining the cause of the resident's injuries or condition and in determining the identity of the person or persons responsible. If you do not have all of this information, you should still report with what you have.

Immunity

Mandatory reporters are immune from any civil or criminal liability on account of their report or testimony or participation unless that person acted in bad faith, with a malicious purpose or was a party to such crime or fraud.

What If I Don't Report

It is unlawful for any person or official required to report abuse, neglect, and exploitation to fail knowingly and willfully to make such a report. Any person violating the provisions of this code section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.
