About the Summit

The inaugural summit in 2016 was established to work on Georgia's first State Plan to Address Senior Hunger, published in December 2017. We are excited to now have the fourth annual Senior Hunger Summit on Tuesday, June 18, 2019, in Savannah. This year's summit will feature general sessions and spotlights that cover the five focus areas of Georgia's State Plan to Address Senior Hunger:

Today's Seniors | Health Impact of Senior Hunger | Food Access
Food Waste and Reclamation | Meeting the Needs of the Community

Target Audience

The DHS Division of Aging Services invites professionals, students and others interested in combating senior hunger to share and learn how senior hunger is being addressed here in Georgia. Conference attendees come from a broad spectrum of industries including nonprofit, for-profit, government, faith-based, civic and educational organizations.

Hotel Accommodations

Conferees can make reservations at the summit location, The DeSoto, 15 E. Liberty Street, Savannah, GA 31401. The special room rate for the summit is $164 per day plus applicable taxes on a first come/first served basis. Once you have registered for the conference, click here to book your room or call (866)990-9491. We are sharing this wonderful opportunity with the attendees of the ADRC Healthy Communities Summit* so you will note the link will state, "Healthy Communities Summit."
